HELP ST. KATHERINE DAY SCHOOL WIN A FREE PROM

Dear Friends,

Saint Katherine Day School is a school for students with intellectual disabilities. The annual prom is the highlight of their year! Current students, alumni and Best Buddies from Archbishop Carroll High School all attend the prom. We found a free contest on-line to help defray the costs. We are asking for help from our local communities to vote for us and help us win. We are competing against big high schools all over the Country.

Directions:

Go to Stumpsparty.com

Look for the purple icon on the left that says Proms Across America and click on it

Then click on vote

Scroll to PA and find St. Katherine Day Radnor

Click on it

Scroll to the bottom of the page and enter the code provided
click on vote

The contest runs until March and you can vote as often as you like. The more votes we get the greater the chance to win. We are competing against large high schools around the country.

Please send this to everyone and encourage them to vote often!
